Sorry, this would be the call with HQ, thought I said that in the voicemail but was scrambling to get the calendars figured out as next week being a holiday week, it's a bit chaotic. We would probably want to have a pre-call to talk about the content prior to actually meeting with HQ. Steve and I have a call scheduled for tomorrow afternoon that we may be able to use if you and Kevin are available or Friday may be best to give everyone chance to get the ducks lined up. We are reaching out to HQ today to see if they can free up any better time later in the day or week, but for now, I would tentatively block out the Tuesday morning time.

Cheers,

Good morning Sean.

This Friday morning or next Tuesday morning will work for me. As you noted in your voicemail Steve's availability over the next couple weeks is questionable. Depending on the content we need to cover I may pull in some other staff to help me. When I spoke with Kevin we talked about potentially having a conference call to plan a call with HQ. Will you please clarify for me what the purpose of the call is that we are scheduling?

Many thanks!

Katrina

Hi Katrina,

Just left you a voice mail and identified a few times for a potential meeting. I found one more time and did a summary below. If you can let me know if any of those times work for you, that would be great. We are anticipating a 1 hour meeting.

Friday, Oct.10 morning

Tuesday Oct 14 at 8 am or 8:30 am

Thursday Oct 16 at 1 PM

Cheers,

Sean Ramach
